PRIAPISM. CASE REPORT

C. Armando Iturralde Codina, Victor Ortiz, Miriamy Cofiño and Yinet Iturralde Muñoz.

Urology Department. Hospital Universitario 10 de Octubre. Habana. Cuba.

Patient male, 33 years old, white skin, single, with the background of mother with sickle cell anemia. He comes to casualty ward with erection of penis, painful, no sexual stimulation, strong pain in penis.

The treatment was IV hidratation, analgesic, sedatives, enemas with cold water.

The patient no relief in 24 hours and we made corpus cavernosum washing puncture with saline solution and heparine. In that moment improved the patient but the next day again with the erection and new corpus cavernosum washing puncture was done, using peridural anesthesia.

At the end of the procedure, the patient finished the priapism, and was discharged of the ward in 1 week. The penis erection are normal 1 month after the operation.

FIGURE 1. Patient with priapism.
FIGURE 2. Corpus cavernosum washing puncture with dark blood.

FIGURE 3. Corpus cavernosum washing puncture with red blood.

FIGURE 4. Good evolution 2 days after the treatment.